“[Gesher is] an opportunity for me to learn things about myself and my peers and [for me] to guide others in opening up to each other.”

Adam

HOW DOES THE PROGRAM WORK?

Madrichim (peer leaders) begin training with a fall retreat

Madrichim continue to attend training sessions two Monday nights a month throughout the school year to socialize and learn new skills (6:30-8:30 p.m., with light dinner provided)

Working in small groups Madrichim use their newly mastered skills to plan and lead outreach sessions with Talmidim and Madrichim up to 6 times during the school year.

WHAT ARE BENEFITS TO MADRICHIM?

- ◆ Development of a broad new Jewish peer group from the Princeton Mercer Bucks County area
- ◆ Increased opportunity to act as Jewish role-models within the community
- ◆ Increased self-confidence
- ◆ Skills to last a lifetime
 - ◆ Improved communication skills
 - ◆ Development of leaderships skills
 - ◆ Problem solving
 - ◆ Critical thinking
 - ◆ Facilitation of group discussion
 - ◆ Public speaking

“It’s fun! [Gesher is a] time to meet new people, and also great for learning new leaderships qualities.”

Dan

HOW DO I SIGN UP?
