“The help I have received is more than just food and supplies.

It is hope.”

The clients we serve, particularly in our senior and food programs, are facing a reality of scarcity. Benefit programs are being cut, the cost of basic necessities surge, and resources dwindle.

In contrast to scarcity, JFCS aims to deliver more. More than a phone call, an advocate. More than a counselor, a safe place to share. More than a leadership opportunity, a connection to cultural values. More than a bag of food, dignity & hope.

The commitment to more stems from empathy, compassion, and understanding across our team and across our community of supporters. YOU, our supporters give more than a donation, it is a promise of a better tomorrow. It is a promise to recognize the community between us all. It is a promise to answer the call to care for our neighbors at their most vulnerable. It is a promise to recognize our shared pursuit of a better life.

We all identify with the uncertainty of aging, when even after a lifetime of working and planning, one catastrophic health event could upend your senior years.

We all appreciate the need for accessible mental healthcare, when anxieties are rising.

We all recognize the drive to do everything you can to keep food on the table for your children.

With our gifts together, we can deliver more than the sum of our parts. We can uplift our neighbors during trying times. When help, hope and healing are needed more than ever, together, we can do more. Together, we can create brighter tomorrows.

With gratitude for your past gifts and your continued generosity,

Michelle Schwalbe
Executive Director

Scott Sussman

When my Medicaid application was finally submitted, my care manager told me I worked hard for it. I told her, no WE worked hard. I couldn't have done this without her.”

— KATHLEEN, SENIOR CARE CLIENT

Identity changed to respect client's anonymity.*

MORE THAN A PHONE CALL, AN ADVOCATE.

At just 49 years old, Kathleen suffered a stroke. In a brief moment, her life was upended. The stroke left her paralyzed on her left side. She was mostly homebound due to her limited mobility. In 2021, Kathleen tried to apply for Medicaid but felt immediately overwhelmed.

“Mentally, I couldn't take it. I felt lost in the whole application process.”

Four years later, Kathleen reached out to JFCS. When she shared that she could not physically come to the JFCS offices, our geriatric care manager met at her home.

Our care manager helped Kathleen fill out paperwork, pull together required documentation, and delivered the completed forms. The JFCS care manager also made the critical introduction between Kathleen and her Medicaid case worker.

“I finally had a true advocate in my corner.”

Kathleen now has access to a home health aide, transportation to doctors' appointments and the grocery store, and also utilizes the JFCS food pantry once a month.

“Things I couldn't do before, I can do now. It has been life changing, even lifesaving.”

“My care manager helped me so readily and easily. At every step she was kind, encouraging with gentle pushes and reminder phone calls.”

MORE THAN A COUNSELOR, A SAFE PLACE TO SHARE.

Lonnie was no stranger to therapy. For years, he attended a support group at his local library. But when the group was discontinued, he started to feel lost again. With a call to JFCS, he was back on track.

“By having my counselor as a regular resource, I've been able to get through the challenges that come with life. The best part is having a safe place to express my feelings, talking through my emotions with the guidance of my counselor.

I've even noticed that I am a better advocate for myself and my mental health. I am speaking up for myself, which feels good.”

Identity changed to respect client's anonymity.*

I feel wound up during the week and counseling calms me and helps me function every day overall.”

— LONNIE, 65 YEAR OLD COUNSELING CLIENT

MORE THAN A LEADERSHIP OPPORTUNITY, A CONNECTION TO CULTURAL VALUES.

JFCS delivers two unique teen programs: Gesher LeKeshet, focusing on mentorship, and Jewish Community Youth Foundation (JCYF), which educates teens on philanthropy. What makes each program unique is their foundation in Jewish values. Year after year, the programs provide a space for Jewish teens to connect with each other and with their cultural Jewish identity. In the face of rising antisemitism, each program has been a safe space for Jewish teens to come together in exploration and celebration of their heritage.

“For the past few years of my life, JCYF has been a constant commitment that has never wavered. It has been a way for me to meet many of my peers in surrounding towns, introducing me to a community of Jewish people I otherwise may not have met. I learned many valuable lessons, in leadership, in ethics, and in understanding the value of tzedakah. Learning to collaborate and make important decisions in a responsible way are values I will carry with me for a long time. JCYF is an amazing program, giving me life lessons from the perspective of an amazing Jewish community. Thank you to all of the advisors and everyone who makes JCYF a possibility!”

— DANNY, JCYF CLASS OF 2025

“I enjoy working with my peers and knowing that I am doing good for my community.”
— JCYF 10TH GRADE PARTICIPANT

“Being able to connect and build relationships with other Jewish teens that share a lot of my experiences has helped me strengthen my Jewish identity.”
— GESHER LeKESHER 11TH GRADE PARTICIPANT

“Gesher LeKeshet connected me to my Jewish self and kids who have the same values as me.”
— GESHER LeKESHER 12TH GRADE PARTICIPANT

MORE THAN A BAG OF FOOD, DIGNITY & HOPE.

“I’m a single mother. A single working mother. For a better life, my two boys and I moved here from a rural part of Korea with very limited funds. While we work toward becoming settled and self-reliant, I needed help, and finding JFCS felt like an answer to my prayers. JFCS has not only put fresh food on our table but also helped with school supplies when I felt completely overwhelmed by the prices. We are on SNAP, but with the high cost of living these days, it is often not enough. Without JFCS, I would sometimes have to choose less nutritious foods just to fill our bellies. My boys are growing, and they eat a lot. Thanks to JFCS, fresh fruits and vegetables have become part of our meals. I am deeply grateful not just for the food and supplies, but for the genuinely kind people at JFCS. Growing up in an Asian household, I was taught to be embarrassed to ask for help, and being less fortunate was something to be ashamed of. It wasn’t easy to reach out, but I realized pride means nothing if my boys aren’t eating well.”

“Thank you, JFCS, for your warmth, your love, and your support. The help I have received is more than just food and supplies. It is hope.”
